

Tutor Training to Fit Every Provider and Tutor

Easily enhance your current training program or quickly launch a comprehensive, research based and field tested curriculum for training tutors or administrators.

Choose the option(s) below that best fit your needs...

Train-the-Trainer and Classroom Workbook Curriculum

The train-the-trainer program is completely online and self-paced. It may be started at any time, no cohorts or class groups need to form. This 70 hour curriculum equips your staff to train tutors to insure client success.

Regular assignment review is provided by a National Tutoring Association (NTA) Master Tutor who individually mentors each trainer.

The training begins with the highly acclaimed and accredited “Tutoring Foundations” Comprehensive program (Basic, Intermediate and Advanced modules), mentored to reinforce trainer techniques. It is followed by a capstone course which reviews classroom pedagogy, techniques and curriculum enhancement.

The all-inclusive training cost for materials, personalized mentor interaction, and printed certificate of completion is $649.00.

Certified trainers are able to conduct 25 to 30 hours of tutor training classes using Basic, Intermediate and Advanced consumable workbooks at $25.00 each per level, per student.

This curriculum articulates with suggested CRLA tutor training topics. Please see the topic list on the other side of this page.

Currently in use by 16 providers including The University of Arkansas, Youth Action Project, Firehouse Learning, Burrillville High School, and Pueblo Community College.

Online Campus: Self-Paced = Maximum Flexibility

Gathering tutors or staff for group training can often be difficult. Maximize center down time or allow tutors to study when and where they can.

Students in this browser based, self-paced online program are individually mentored by NTA Master Tutors. The online curriculum articulates with the classroom workbook modules for mix and match instruction to supplement classroom training.

Start at any time, 1 to 100+ students at once. Available to solo practitioners as well.

15 to 20 hours of student time is normally required for each Basic, Intermediate or Advanced module. Enrollment fee of $159 per module, per student.

Currently in use by 178 providers including Rutgers University, A+ Tutoring and Test Prep, Youth Action Network and CCi (142 campuses.)

“Tutoring Foundations” Curriculum Topic Highlights

Following are some areas covered in the online training as well as the licensed curriculum lectures and workbooks. A complete learning outcomes analysis is available upon request.

- Tutorial responsibilities/ethics
- Basic learning theory
- Planning, beginning and ending sessions
- Setting goals and planning
- Basic communication skills
- Managing time and stress
- When and how to make referrals
- Evaluation and assessment
- Improving study skills
- Basic forms of questioning/reinforcement
- Critical thinking skill development
- Understanding/dealing with culture shock
- Conflict resolution techniques
- Building relationships with parents/teachers
- Learning styles/multiple modalities
- Test preparation techniques
- Key reading/writing tutoring techniques
- Individual versus group tutoring dynamics
- Maintaining records/securing paperwork
- Legal Considerations

National Professional Certification and CEUs

Instructors completing the “Tutoring Foundations Train-the-Trainer” program may apply for the nationally recognized NTA Level II Trainer certification that allows them to train and NTA certify staff professional or peer tutors.

All tutors who receive Basic, Intermediate or Advanced training from NTA certified trainers satisfy academic requirements in articulation with the NTA Level I series tutor certifications.

More NTA certification information available at (863) 529-5206, ntatutor@aol.com, or www.ntatutor.com.

Crossroads of Learning delivered online training qualifies graduates to receive continuing education units (CEUs) granted from Fielding Graduate University, Santa Barbara, California. More information available at 800.340.1099, www.fielding.edu or admission@fielding.edu.

What Providers Are Saying About “Tutoring Foundations”

“The most bang for the buck of any training that I had taken. I would certainly recommend this course not only to tutors but to people who run learning centers, faculty and workshop facilitators.”

Cyndi Crisel – Student Support Supervisor
Arkansas State University, Mountain Home

“My tutors have been very happy with it. The case studies do make you reflect. If you can think out these situations ahead of time that is very valuable. I think it really benefits my tutors and students.”

Marc Ginsberg – President/Certified Teacher
A+ Tutoring and Test Prep, LLC

These and other reviews are available via streaming video at www.crossroadsoflearning.com. For more information visit our website or Contact Us Today - Bob Lasiewicz, Managing Director, Crossroads of Learning, at 818.249.9692 ext 1, or BL@crossroadsoflearning.com.